"The MUST have book for your entrepreneurial library.."By Debra KasowskiIf you want to change the dynamics in which you build relationships, grow your business, and save tons of time so you can do what you love then you must get this book. Tons of how to advice to work more efficiently and more effectively and get the reults you desire. Awesome book I highly recommend!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. 2 good chapters and then dribbleBy David McGrathThe book started promisingly enough for 2 chapters but then finished with 28 chapters that offered nothing more than a laundry list of internet sites or apps the author had read about.Dull and disappointing.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. This book is a destop reference for small businesses, authors and busy people!By Charmaine E. HammondHow to keep your head above water and do business in a quickly changing virtual world, this book tells us how to do this.I love this book! 30 Days to Virtual Productivity Success is a step by step reference guide that is quick to digest and serves as a great desktop tool for busy people, entrepreneurs and authors. Getting with the times in a virtual world can be a big learning curve, challenging us to stay on top of different platforms and means of connecting. This book walks the reader through numerous virtual platforms to expand their reach, strengthen their productivity activities and use the virtual platforms to free up more time and increase efficiency.In this book, each chapter ends with Result Rules, Action Items and the Rule of 30- these are great highlight reminders, and actions for the reader to put into practice what they have learned. One of my personal favorite chapters was the Touch To Transactions, helping the reader understand how to deepen relationships and connections and how to turn the many "touches" with have in marketing, into a form of a transactions.A must read for small businesses.Charmaine HammondBest selling award winning Author, International Speaker
