Following through GOYA and GOYA TOO, this book is a must read not only for those running a business but also for those who sincerely want to run a better life. There are no short-cuts to get it right in life and business, there is no magic wand, there is no quick-fix, one has to take responsibility and more importantly one has to take massive action. In my view Brad Burton is a perfect reference for many entrepreneurs as he is real. His message is real. And he has been through what all entrepreneurs go through and he is still going through challenges. We often tend to look for role models who are at the pinnacle but I feel little can be learnt from them or anything at all applied. On the other hand, Brad lives in a real world, faces real problems and is so close to the common man, which makes of him a perfect role model for budding and aspiring entrepreneurs. I have read GOYA and GOYA TOO, and now this gem LIFE BUSINESS JUST GOT EASIER, and trust me, this book is a 5-star and am hardly midway through it yet. The book is like "great food", the first bite tells you the flavour it holds, and it is really great. If you are serious about running life and business successfully, it's time to join Brad Burton on this personal and intimate journey and trust me, you will not only enjoy the journey but arrive at the destination you had always cherished.
