Robyn R. Jackson : Never Underestimate Your Teachers: Instructional Leadership for Excellence in Every Classroom before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Never Underestimate Your Teachers: Instructional Leadership for Excellence in Every Classroom:

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A-Must-Read for principals, coaches, coordinators, teacher leaders and anyone supporting teachersBy Ms. GThis book is on point. As I plan to leave the classroom I am trying to equip myself with knowledge and strategies to help improve teacher practice. As a master teacher I have struggled with the things that Robyn points out in her book: I have asked for time to collaborate with like minded colleagues, I have asked to not be pulled for PD that doesn't benefit my needs, I have asked to attend PD outside of the district and all requests have fallen on deaf ears. My principal refuses to release me to find a suitable teaching environment and doesn't know how or want to take the time to meet my needs. This book is right on. I felt like I was in church bc I agreed with everything Robyn said with resounding Amens!

A very practical book on giving feedback to your staff.

Any teacher can be a master teacher. So says Robyn R. Jackson, author of the best-selling Never Work Harder Than Your Students and Other Principles of Great Teaching. In this book for school leaders, Jackson presents a new model for understanding teaching as a combination of skill and will and explains the best ways to support individual teachers' ongoing professional development. Here, you'll learn how to meet your teachers where they are and help every one of them—from the raw novice to the savvy veteran, from the initiative-weary to the change-challenged to the already outstanding—develop the mindset and habits of master teachers. Real-life examples, practical tools, and strategies for managing time and energy demands will help you build your leadership capacity as you raise the level of instructional excellence throughout your school. To move your school forward, you must move the people in it. If you want a master teacher every classroom, you must commit to helping every teacher be a master teacher. That work begins here.
