

No More Bystanders = No More Bullies: Activating Action in Educational Professionals

Shona Anderson

DOC | *audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

DOWNLOAD

+

READ ONLINE

#2559944 in eBooks 2011-01-11 2012-06-07File Name: B00Y3JPA90 | File size: 74.Mb

Shona Anderson : No More Bystanders = No More Bullies: Activating Action in Educational Professionals before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised No More Bystanders = No More Bullies: Activating Action in Educational Professionals:

Team-focused strategies for bully-proofing your schoolOne of the greatest challenges educators face in addressing bullying is recognizing when it's right in front of them. This practical guide gives administrators the steps for creating a school culture where staff members are equipped to stand up instead of stand by. Shona Anderson's seven-step framework arms educators with: A 10-question "pulse check" to determine areas of school culture that need strengthening Tangible actions for each stage of the decision-making cycle Activities that prompt staff members to observe, collaborate, act, and evaluate

"This book offers specific, concrete ways to assess a school's current practices and implement practical strategies tailored to specific schools." (Melanie Mares, Academic Coach 2010-05-28)"The author strikes a great balance between text, action ideas, and survey questions. With each chapter comes the opportunity to examine one's school and apply the information to improve an existing situation." (Kim E. Vogel, Principal 2010-06-30)"This text offers great activities for addressing bullying and changing school culture. I will use this resource repeatedly with respect to Safe and Supportive Schools and Positive Climates for Learning." (Chris Sarellas, Principal 2010-05-28)"This excellent resource gives teachers and administrators the strategies they need to move out of the role of bystander and improve school culture." (Janice Nicholls, Principal 2010-05-28) "This book offers specific, concrete ways to assess a school's current practices and implement practical strategies tailored to specific schools." (Melanie Mares, Academic Coach 2010-05-28)"The author strikes a great balance between text, action ideas, and survey questions. With each chapter comes the opportunity to examine one's school and apply the information to improve an existing situation." (Kim E. Vogel, Principal 2010-06-30)"This text offers great activities for addressing bullying and changing school culture. I will use this resource repeatedly with respect to Safe and Supportive Schools and Positive Climates for Learning." (Chris Sarellas, Principal 2010-05-28)"This excellent resource gives teachers and administrators the strategies they need to move out of the role of bystander and improve school culture." (Janice Nicholls, Principal 2010-05-28)About the AuthorShona Anderson has been an educator since 1996. Her work as both an English teacher and a French teacher led her to administration in 2003 for the Bluewater District School Board. Anderson is also a part-time faculty member of the University of Western Ontario. She started her teaching career with the Upper Grand District School board as a core French teacher. She began taking Additional Qualifications courses and holds a double specialization in the teaching of French as a Second Language and Computers in the Classroom. Anderson holds a B.A. in English from the University of Guelph and a Post Graduate Certificate in Education in secondary education from the University of Strathclyde in Glasgow, Scotland. She also completed her Masters of Education through Charles Sturt University in Australia, with a focus on Educational Research in the area of bullying. Her research was supported by the Ontario Principals Council and she has both written for their publication, the Register, and presented at their annual Odyssey conference. Anderson has also published an action manual for administrators called Creating a Culture of Action for OPC.