If you already have a virtual business you are ready to begin automated marketing straight away. If you currently have a physical business you want to turn virtual or a 9-to-5 job you wish to replace with a passive income make sure you read this book before you start reading it's sequel 'Automated Marketing'. If you have an existing business then you can use this book to adapt what you already sell into this perfect monetising marketing system; however, if you don't already have a business in a way you are better off as you can start from scratch (to provide yourself with an ongoing income beyond your wildest dreams so you can leave your 9-to-5 job) rather than reinvent something that already exists.
